

JOHN KEATS

KRISTY PAZ ♦ ENG350 ♦ PROFESSOR MOY

WHO WAS JOHN KEATS?

- John Keats was a young English poet who successfully marked history by creating his own poetic rhyme schemes and changing the way sonnets had been written by great writers like William Shakespeare and Francesco Petrarch. However, in his time he was not known as much until after his death at age 25 due to a venereal disease (tuberculosis).
- Among John Keats works we find beautifully thought letters to his loved ones and poems.

SKETCHES OF JOHN KEATS

SKETCH BY CHARLES BROWN

- Charcoal sketch of John Keats
- Charles Brown did it in 1819
- Published the sketch until the 20th century.
- Sketch is found in the National Portrait Gallery in London.
- According to Wolfson's book, "Brown's sketch of Keats in 1819 renders a handsome 'young poet,' big-fisted, contemplative, self-possessed, the pose conscious of Richard Westall's famous profile of Lord Byron (1813, after the overnight success of Childe Harold's Pilgrimage).

SKETCH BY WILLIAM HILTON

- By Charles Wass
- Inspired by William Hilton's previous sketches
- 1841
- Pencil on paper
- Found in book of John Keats in Princeton University's Library

SKETCH BY HAYDON

- Benjamin Robert Haydon
- 1816
- Study for Christ's Entry into Jerusalem
- Pencil on paper

SKETCH OF JOHN KEATS BY WESTALL RICHARD

- John Keats in Profile
- Pencil on paper
- 1765-1836
- Located in Princeton University

SKETCH OF JOHN KEATS

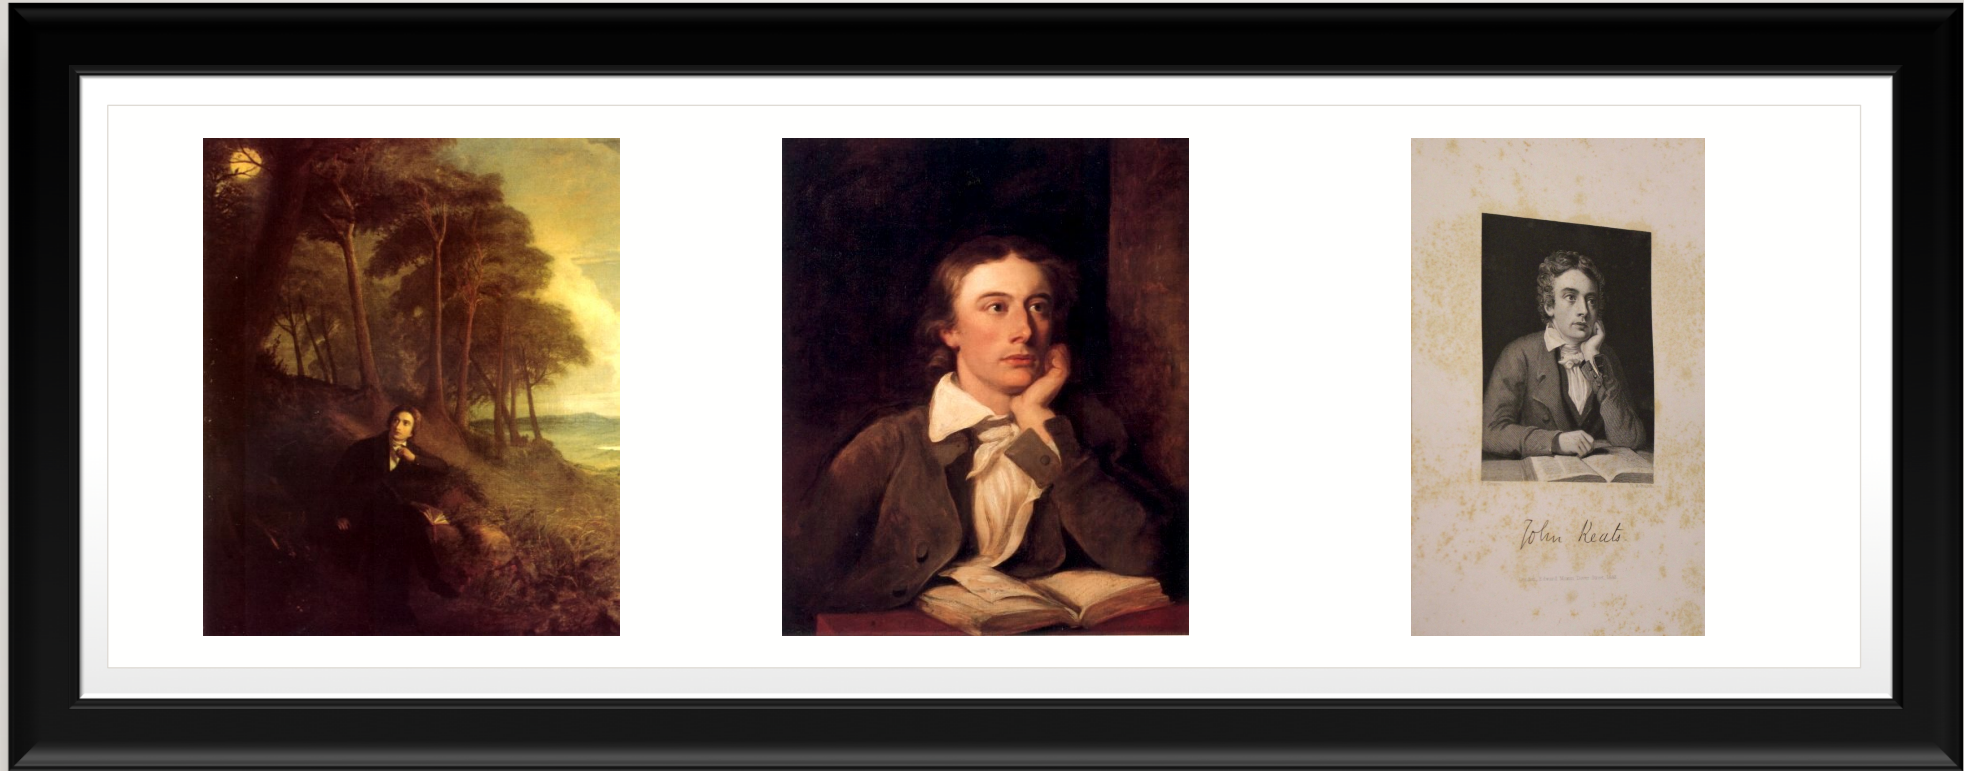

- By Joseph Severn
- 1816
- Charcoal
- The most recognized sketch

KEATS SKETCH IN HIS DEATH BED

- Joseph Severn Sketched it.
- Keats was located in the Keats-Shelley House, in Rome.
- In Page 141 we find what Severn wrote under his sketch of John Keats, “28 January, 1821, 3 o’ clock in the morning, drawn to keep me awake. A deadly sweat was on him all this night.”

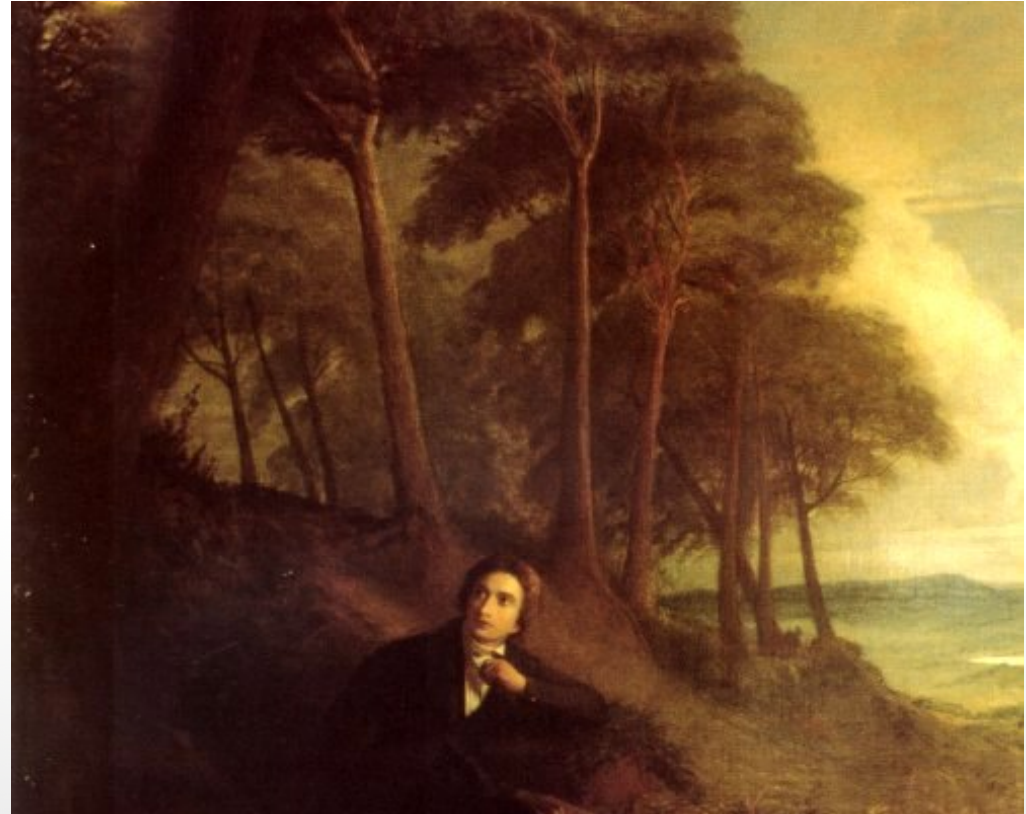

PORTRAITS OF JOHN KEATS

PORTRAIT OF JOHN KEATS

- By Joseph Severn
- 1845
- John Keats listening to a nightingale on Hampstead Heath

PORTRAIT OF JOHN KEATS

- By Joseph Severn
- Located in London
- Keats is in reading position

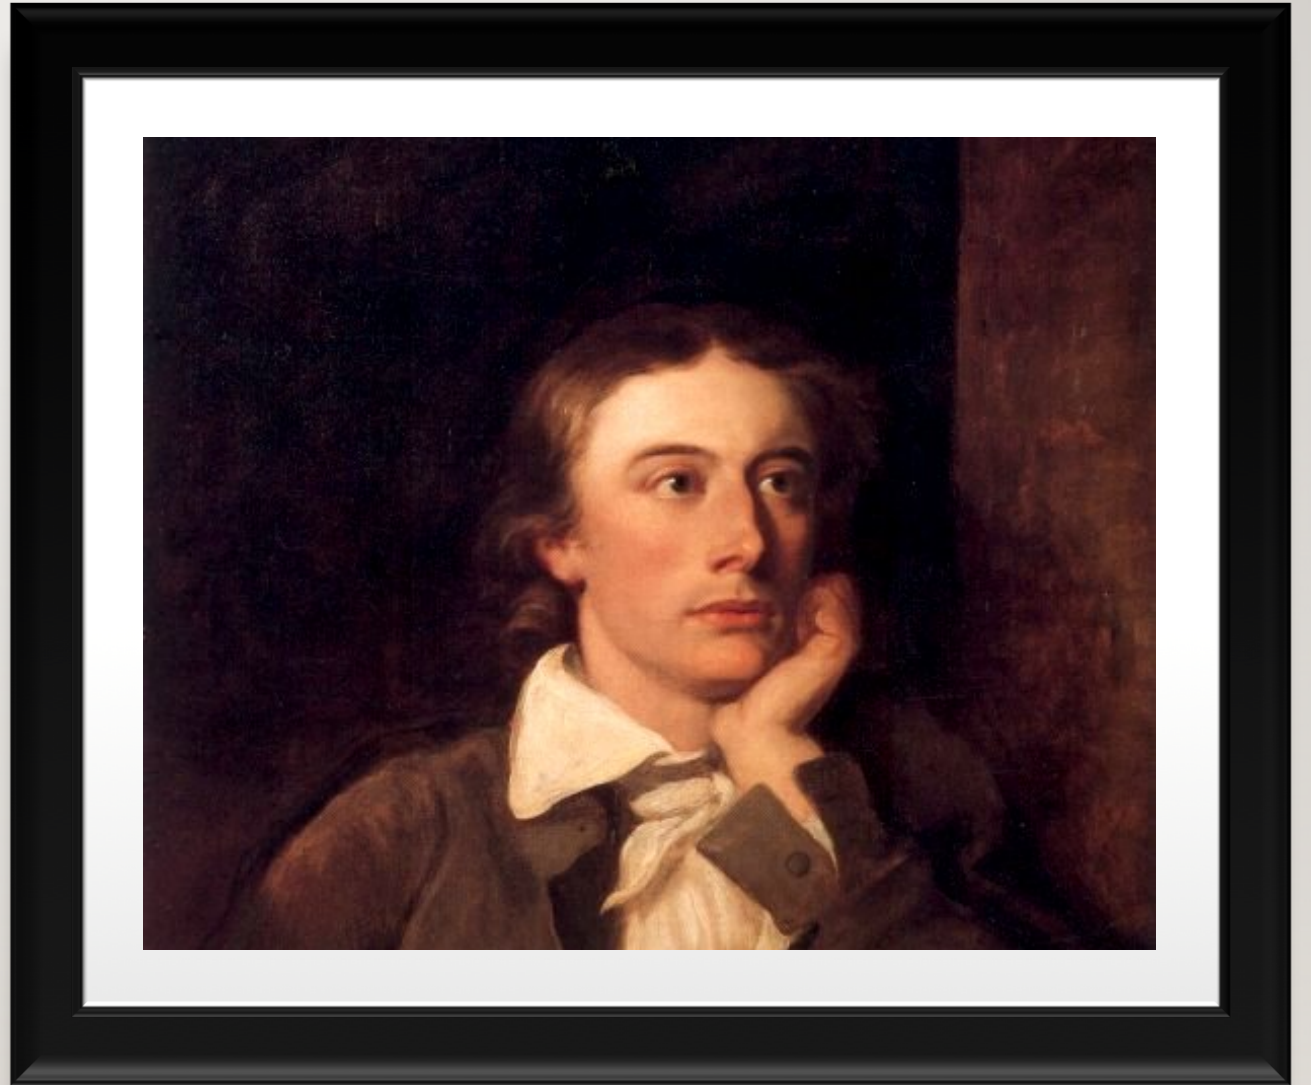

PORTRAIT OF JOHN KEATS

- Oil on ivory
- By Joseph Severn
- 1819

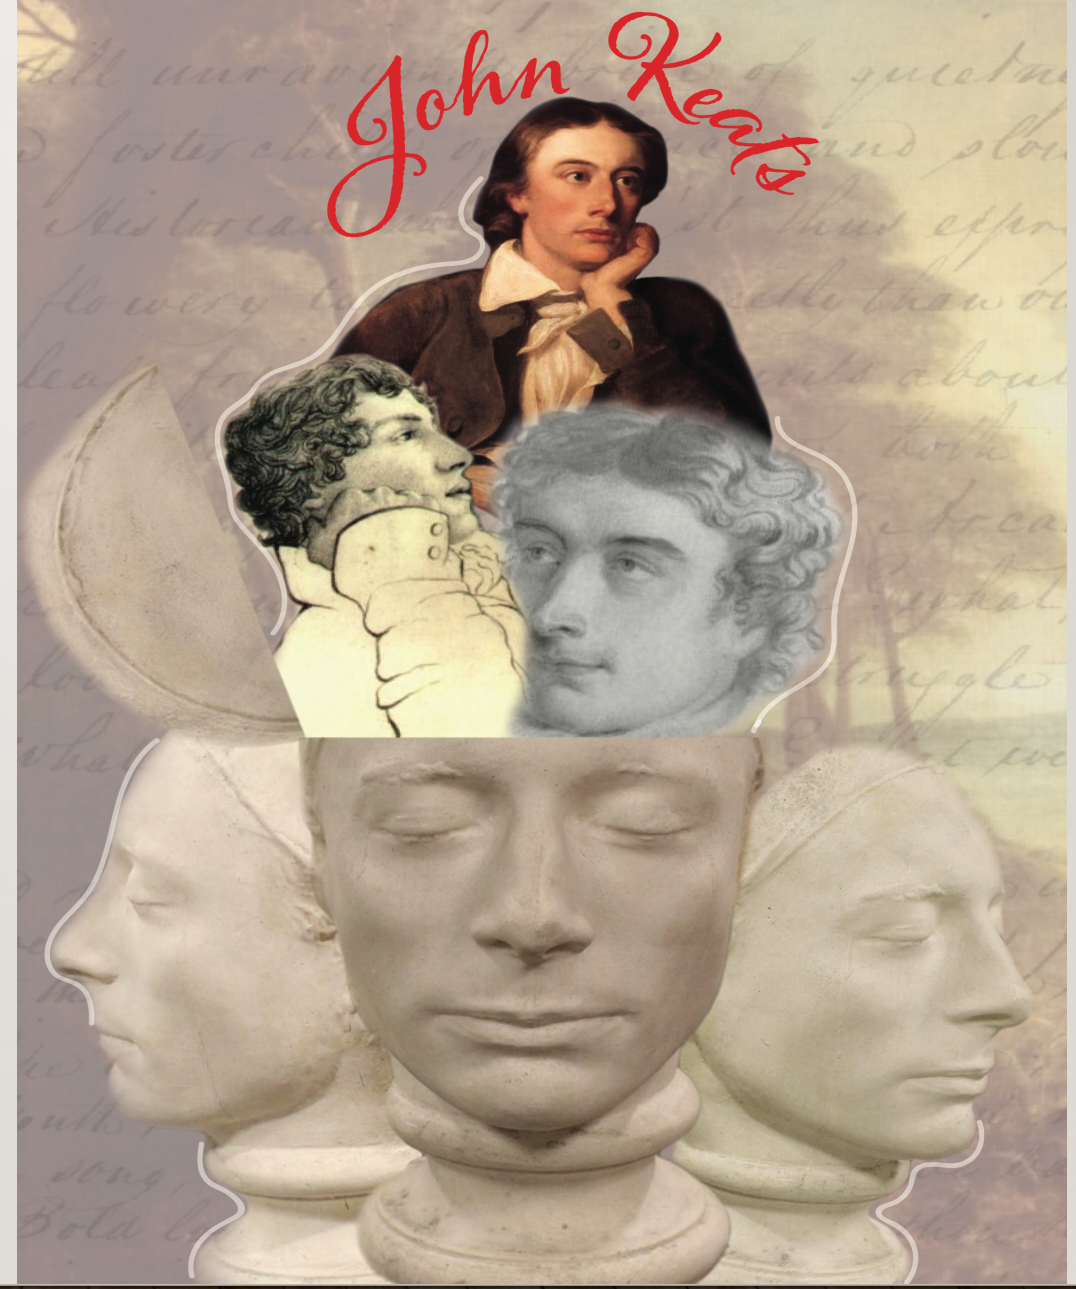

PORTRAIT OF JOHN KEATS

- By William Hilton
- Most known portrait of Keats
- Hilton was inspired by Joseph Severn
- Located in London

MY OWN JOHN KEATS POSTER

SKETCH MADE BY HAND OF JOHN KEATS

By Jamila Inocente

REPLICATE OF KEATS' LIFE MASK IN
PRINCETON UNIVERSITY

LIFE AND DEATH MASKS

- Life mask was done by Benjain Robert Haydon
- 1816
- Original life and death masks are located in London in the National Portrait Gallery

KEATS' GRAVE IN ENGLAND AND THE SKETCH

- The sketch of the grave of Keats was by Joseph Sabin
- Etching
- 1821-1881
- Sketch is found in Princeton University
- The gravesite is located at the Protestant cemetery in Rome

SOURCES

- Hanson, Marilee. "John Keats Images & Pictures" https://englishhistory.net/keats/john-keats-images-pictures/, February 24, 2015
- Woflson, Susan J., Reading John Keats, Cambridge University Press, 2015. Printed.
- Princeton Library Trip with ENG350 Class (Photos taken by: Olivia Moy)
- NYPL Trip with ENG350 Class (Photos taken by: Olivia Moy)